

LOVE RAISES PASSIONS

What a disappointment my former landlord was when she introduced me as her common-law partner. From one day to the next he had thrown me on the street, as I found out some time later, for being in arrears. Apparently, he had taken advantage of the occasion to renovate the apartment and get his daughter, near her forties, to become independent. What he didn't know was that I would finally pass the exams to become a tax sub-inspector and that I would have him under control from then on. Now my father-in-law is old, but I can assure you that time does not tame the wild beasts.
